What They're Saying

VK.

"What initially drew me in were the good reviews and stunning pictures and out of the 20+ places I toured this was the only one that was even better than the pictures and really stood out. The complex really feels like you're living at a luxury hotel with the amazing amenities and the attention to detail."

Pet Of The Month

Diego, Trixie, & Halston

Say hello to Diego, Trixie, and Halston – three of the most charming little chihuahuas to grace our building!

Diego, the solid brown sweetheart, is the oldest of the bunch. He's a happy, social guy who loves to greet other dogs and make new friends. If he barks, it's just because his eyesight isn't the best – he's doing his best to recognize you!

Trixie, the little brown and white firecracker, is full of playful energy and curiosity. She might come off a bit tough around other dogs, but underneath that sass is a bundle of love who's always ready to shower you with kisses.

And last but never least, Halston – the dapper black and white pup who sadly passed last year. He'll always be remembered for his joyful spirit and the way he brought smiles to everyone during his daily walks around the building.

Together, this trio has filled their home (and our hearts!) with love, fun, and countless tail wags.
